

Year 4 Homework letter - Friday 15th July 2022

English

This week in English we are continuing with our work on the book Weslandia. The children have started planning their own civilisation this week. They have utilised some of the ideas from Weslandia and started creating their own crops, sports, counting system and music. The ideas we have discussed during class time have been fantastic. Next week we will focus on turning their excellent planning work into interesting and informative brochure. We will be thinking carefully about all of the grammatical points we have covered in Year 4 and how we can use them to benefit our brochures.

Diary Dates

No Ark - 21.7.22 (am and pm)

Geography

This term in Geography we have been learning about Europe. We have been using the atlases to locate countries and capital cities on maps. The children have also been undertaking a mini project. They have been researching countries that I allocated them with, and have subsequently created excellent poster fact files about them.

Maths

This week during Maths we have been continuing our revision of word problems. Last week we focused purely on addition and subtraction. This week we re-introduced word problems including multiplication and division. The children have continued to show great resilience in solving these problems. They have worked hard both independently and in pairs and groups to solve the trickier problems.

Production

On Friday afternoon we were treated to the Year 6 performance of 'The Greatest Show'. The performance was absolutely captivating and the children were completely enthralled by the performance.

Homework

Spellings: The spellings this week focus on statutory Year 4 words.
